6:00 - 9:00 PM

Beit Zatoun, 612 Markham St
TORONTO

Presenting

Ava Homa
Author

Ranging across regions, ethnicities, genders, sexualities and political dispositions, Homa's characters give us a prismatic portrait of Iran that resists both internal tyrannies and Western demonization."
Susan Holbrook, author of Joy Is So Exhausting

Yaseen of I-VOICE
Hip-hop artist

Yasin hails from Bourj el-Barajneh refugee camp, Lebanon. "Yasin raps with a rich, full-throated expression. He pronounces the periphery with unique grammar and narrates his fragmented place in the world with the soulful wisdom of a street-wise prophet." Now Lebanon

Mary Lou Zeitoun
Author

Award winning author ("13" The Porcupine's Quill), and journalist (Now, Globe and Mail, Elle). Zeitoun is a Canadian, Irish, Palestinian Feminist. Her last name and the venue are a total and happy coincidence. Her dream is to finish the docu-musical "Don't Whine Miss Palestine"

Donations accepted at the door. Tax receipts provided for donations $25 and more. Raffles, prizes and sweets!

The Canadian Palestinian Educational Exchange (CEPAL) is a registered charity that believes education is a fundamental right. Since 1996, CEPAL has worked in partnership with local Palestinian NGOs in refugee camps in Lebanon to increase refugees' access to education.
